Message of the Director General.....

I am very much pleased to have been afforded the opportunity to issue this message to the Performance Report 2016 which bears witness to the present progress of the Civil Security Department.

With the termination of the disastrous thirty year long war, the Civil Defence Force came to be a Department and it rolegradually underwent a change. Accordingly, in addition to its role as a supplementary force, it provides a strong labour force for the development of the country and at the same time became a reach source of income to the national coffers.

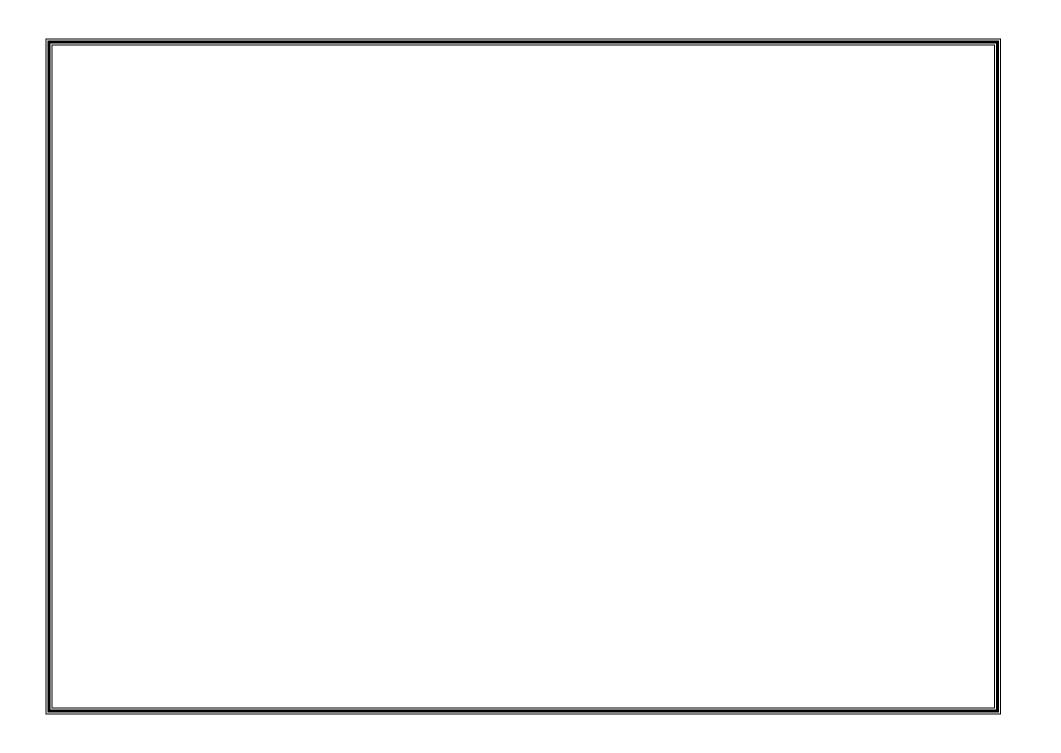

In 2006 the Department took a further step, and on the instructions of His Excellency the President, the Department provided a group of 3,000 members to the Police Department, a group of 500 members to supplement the 2500 members now engaged in maintaining the electric fence and provides additional members for the duty of chasing away elephants and a further amount of members to protect the archeological sites and this has enabled the Department to further expand its activities.

It operates 23 Force Headquarters and 05 training schools extending its services to cover more areas as possible. These members have launched agricultural projects for the cultivation of vegetables, fruits and cereals endemic to the particular areas, and also have undertaken animal husbandry projects and projects for the production of bricks and handicrafts. They are also engaged in providing security to government institutions. They also have extended their contribution to the medium and small construction work by means of labour. The role played by the Department for the revival of education, religion and culture is specially significant. The contribution to the uplift of the health of the nation by dengue eradication programmes, drug prevention and blood donation campaigns and the control of kidney disease, is very important. Further, rehabilitated3500 (nearly) Tamil youth, both male and female, were recruited to the Department, for agricultural and other development activities in the Northern province specially the Districts of Kilinochchi and Mullaitivu with the purpose ofcreating harmony between the Sinhala and the Tamil communities.

All soldiers both male and female were granted permanent appointments and the payment of pensions in a systematic way whichcan be considered a great victory. Further the Benevolent Fund, the SuwaSawiya Fund and the Kidney Help Fund established in the Department for the welfare of the soldiers and the members of their families, provide many benefits for them. In addition, the SevaVanitha Unit also plays a vital role in providing welfare facilities within the Department, out of which the house construction project which caters to the welfare of the low income families is very important. Our Department hopes to continue in future the social benefit schemes such as award of compensation to the Civil Security members, health protection, surgical assistance, loan schemes, various types of assistance for the education of children, donation of spectacles, wheel chairs and organization of medical clinics.

It is our objective to develop the knowledge, skills and attitudes of the members, and thereby raise their efficiency. This is expected to enhance their economic, social and cultural progress and thereby contribute to the development of the country. In addition to the good work already done, we dedicate ourselves to provide maximum contribution to the well being of our motherland. Finally, I earnestly wish that the staff of the Department, it's civilian staff and the Civil Security staff be endowed with necessary vigour and strength to fulfil the expected objectives.

ChandrarathnePallegama Director General

Message of the Additional Director General.....

I am very much pleased to have been afforded the opportunity to issue this message to the Performance Report 2016 which bears witness to the present progress of the Civil Security Department.

At a time when our motherland is involved in its march towards making our country a prosperous one, both male and female members of the Civil Security Department have, through diverse projects made direct contribution to the development of the country by way of providing maximum possible physical participation. In addition, our Department provided protection to places of religious worship and sacred areas and at the same time engaged in the construction of protective fences as a solution to the elephant – human conflict. Another important contribution made by our Department is the provision of security to the government institutions. Further, the Department has been successful in bringing dignity and fame to it by engaging in town beautification and participation in national festivals in the fields of music and dancing and thereby display their abilities.

The members of our Department who dedicated their life to end the deadly war which pushed our country into an abyss for many many years, are now in receipt of a permanent pension under the new government for the vital role they presently play in the development of the country, which is a vital necessity in the present day context.

The funds maintained by the Department to provide welfare for the civil security staff, both male and female – who contribute to the development of this country, have provided immense service. Our SevaVanitha Unit too has continuously provided assistance in many fields including housing, education, and health.

I am very grateful to Engineer Mr. KarunasenaHettiatachchi, Secretary Ministry of Defence and Mr. ChandraratnePallegama, Director General for the assistance and guidance which contributed towards the last years success.

I wish that the personnel of this Department be endowed with strength and determination to achive success in this type of activities in future too.

Rear Admiral Shemal Fernando, R.S.P, V.S.V, U.S.P, M.S.C, P.S.C. Additional Director General

• Since the expenditure incurred on repairs, fixing air conditioners, re-opening of the clothing project too was included in the expenditure and because a loss was shown under net profit, the production targets have been achieved.

• The anticipated target could not be achieved because of the lack of a market for the products.
